

People without Homes: From Awareness to Action

How do we take our commitment to people who are homeless a step further? Since its inception last year, the St. James Housing Advocacy Committee has worked to increase action within the parish to end homelessness. Join us for an educational and action-inspiring evening with Laura Clark and Rich Gamble.

Thursday, May 20 at 7pm
in Cathedral Hall

Presentations:

“Healing the Human Spirit after Housing the Body” - Laura Clark

“Political Advocacy: Ethical, Essential, Easy” - Rich Gamble

About our Presenters

Laura Clark has spent 18 years working in social services. After she and her three sons experienced domestic violence, formal eviction and life in a small car, she unwittingly began a journey that would lead her to work with others experiencing a housing crisis. Her compassion for the human spirit, her belief in the possibilities of success, and her commitment to sharing her story in an attempt to inspire societal change is ever present in the work she does.

Rich is the Lead Organizer with the FAITH (Faithful Action In Transforming Homelessness) Program of Catholic Community Services. He has been an advocate for people who are homeless for over 20 years. He will address how our actions can make a difference to end homelessness.
